"Ever the Night Road" Is Finalist in 2022 Wishing Shelf Book Awards Gold, Silver and Bronze Winners To Be Announced in April

Feb. 20, 2023 -- The fantasy novel "Ever the Night Road" by indie author Michael Breen has been named a Finalist in the 2022 Wishing Shelf Book Awards. The UK-based award contest received 586 submissions of self-published and small press books last year. The winners (gold, silver and bronze) will be announced April 1.

"Ever the Night Road" is a coming-of-age story featuring female protagonist Dagny Losh. The teenager's longing for adventure becomes a high-stakes quest guided by the stars and ancient myth, as she and an array of companions encounter danger from both criminal and supernatural forces. Along the way, Dagny will discover the bonds of true friendship, young love and the depths of her own bravery in a brutal and enchanting world.

The book has received multiple accolades since its launch in November 2022 including the Indies Today 2022 Finalist Award, the International Review of Books Gold Badge of Achievement and the Literary Titan Book Award. Multiple five-star reviews from Readers' Favorite describe the book as "a magical fantasy that I couldn't put down" and that note it will "take your imagination to new heights."

"Ever the Night Road" is available in print and e-book through a variety of online retailers such as Amazon, Barnes & Noble, Kobo, Apple, Scribd and more. The audiobook is in production, expected to be released later in 2023 prior to the release of the anticipated sequel, "Jud."
